

Taking Care of Business

The Musuneggi Financial Group and Single Steps Strategies invite you to join us for a new series of workshops.

“Takin’ Care of Business”

These workshops will be held on the first Thursday of each month and will include lunch. They are designed to provide small business owners and those considering a business of their own, with important information on Starting, Growing, Marketing and Transitioning your business. The first in the series will be held on September 6, 2007, with a presentation by Cathy Brennan of Acappella Marketing, “Big Business Marketing for Small Business.”

All workshops in this series will be held at the Crowne Plaza, 164 Fort Couch Road, Bethel Park (across from South Hills Village) from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The cost is $20 in advance or $25 at the door (includes lunch).

So take a break from your busy workday. Enjoy a nice lunch, a great speaker, and networking with other business owners.

To learn more or to register, please call 412-833-2888 or see details of other upcoming workshops at www.singlestepsstrategies.com.
